Bylaws Utah Breastfeeding Coalition
Revised January 13, 2011

Article 1 Name
The name of the organization shall be the Utah Breastfeeding Coalition hereinafter referred to as the "Coalition."

Article 2 The Purpose of the Coalition is:
To collaboratively support, promote, protect, and celebrate breastfeeding in the State of Utah.

Article 3 The Goals of the Coalition are to:
1. Encourage mothers to initiate and continue breastfeeding.
2. Increase public understanding that breastfeeding is the normal course for nourishing children and that efforts to undermine breastfeeding are serious threats to the health of children and women.
3. Contribute to a supportive and accepting social environment with respect to breastfeeding.
4. Model policies and practices that promote and support breastfeeding in all sectors of the health care system.
5. Support the establishment of model policies in work sites and child care facilities that foster a positive environment for breastfeeding.
6. Encourage active support for breastfeeding among key community leaders.
7. Encourage key agency leaders and others who influence these individuals or groups to take action and develop concrete policies in support of breastfeeding.

Article 4 Membership

Section 1.1
Membership shall be open to any person residing or working in Utah who is interested and who can contribute to the Coalition. Representatives from the following areas will be encouraged to maintain membership: health care providers including hospital staff, private physicians, nurses, lactation consultants, health department personnel, and mental health professionals; social service providers; school personnel; La Leche League Leaders; community leaders and legislators; representatives of other community groups; and breastfeeding women.

Section 1.2
There shall be three categories of membership: Organizational, Individual, and Corporate sponsor. The terms of membership shall be one year or five years unless otherwise designated. No person or organization shall be denied membership because of race, sex, religious preference, ethnic considerations, or any other grounds in which it is impermissible to discriminate. If a conflict of interest is apparent by an individual or group, membership may be denied by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
Section 2 – Individual Members: Individuals with a commitment to the objectives and who are willing to support the work of the Coalition may become members.

A. Individual members will attend coalition meetings and are entitled to one vote on coalition business.
B. Individual members are encouraged to participate in one or more committees of the Coalition.
C. Individual members may be elected as officers of the Coalition.
D. Individual members will be in good standing if dues are paid every year.
E. Dues will be reviewed and determined annually by the board of directors.

Section 3 - Organizational members:
Voluntary, Professional and Government organizations with a common interest and commitment to the purpose and objectives of the Coalition may become member organizations. This will be evaluated by review of the organization’s mission statement and approval of the executive committee. The organization must meet requirements of non-profit status. Responsibilities:

A. An organization will be represented by one delegate who will attend coalition meetings and is entitled to one vote on behalf of their constituents on any business before the coalition.
B. Organizational member delegates are encouraged to participate in one or more committees of the Coalition. Delegates will be eligible for discounted member rates at coalition events. However, members of the organization who are not delegates will not be eligible for discounted member rates, unless they hold individual membership status.
C. Organizational member delegates may be elected as officers of the Coalition, but in doing so they do not necessarily represent the interests of their organizations.
D. Dues for the organization membership will be reviewed and determined annually by the board of directors.

Section 4 - Corporate Partners:
Businesses, corporations and other organizations which do not meet criteria for non-profit status with a commitment to support the purpose and objectives of the Coalition may become corporate partners.

A. Levels of corporate sponsorship will be determined by the Board of Directors.
B. Corporate partners may select a delegate who has voting privileges, and is eligible to serve as an officer of the Coalition.
C. Corporate Partners are expected to contribute cash or in kind donations or services to the market equivalent of at least $100 per year or $450 every five years. Corporate partners will receive acknowledgment of their partnership on the Coalition’s promotional materials as directed by the executive council.
